

Annulus Fluid Management Services

Service Description:

ACC Corporate has the people, equipment and expertise to address all your annulus service requirements. Our history in wellhead service and integrity restoration has given us a rich history of all aspects of annulus treatment requirements. Whether testing, filling, monitoring or diagnosing ACC Corporate have your requirements available.

Key Offerings:

- Compact pump spreads are easily mobilised to offshore and onshore wells
- Blending and batching fluids
- Nitrogen blankets
- Annulus safety valves
- Pressure build-up analysis
- Echo depth sounding
- Leak identification and repair

Features and Benefits:

- Lube and bleed services
- Leak identification and repair
- Blending and pumping equipment capable of all volume applications
- Supply of annulus fluid treatment products
- Nitrogen applications including testing, blankets and leak identification
- Echo depth sounding (locates top of liquid)
- Packer testing
- Valve removal and replacement
- Safety valves and in-annulus pressure/temperature monitoring
- Personnel well versed in integrity matters
MAASP calculation

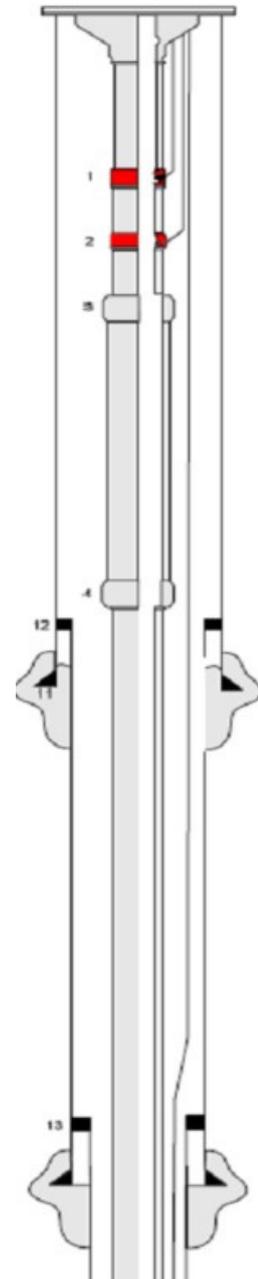

Image is for illustration purposes only.
Annulus Fluid Management Services